

KROGER CO. TO BUILD A MODERN MARKET IN CITY

SUN OIL CO., WILL ALSO BUILD NEW STATION ON N. JACKSON ST.

The Kroger Grocery and Baking Co., which has been on the south side of the public square since they came to Greencastle many years ago, has purchased the properties of William Walsh and Paul Grimes on North Jackson street and the Trevaun Silery, Byron Wright and Fay Hamilton properties on North Indiana street. They have also purchased additional frontage on North Jackson street from the Sun Oil Co., and will erect a modern drive-in market on the site within the next few months. The plans call for construction to start within 30 to 40 days, or as soon after the residence properties are moved from the lots as is practicable.

The Sun Oil Co., will also erect a new and modern gasoline station on their lots at the corner of Jackson street and their south line. These two new additions will add greatly to the business section on North Jackson street and will extend east to Indiana street.

To make these transactions possible, the alley between New York street and Daggy street, was closed and north Indiana was rezoned for business purposes.

The new store will be of brick or steel construction and will have a floor space of 8,100 square feet. There will be parking space available for at least 60 cars. The store building will be on the south side of the tract, facing Jackson street. The parking area will be on the north side of the new building, with truck unloading facilities off Indiana street.

O. D. Ellis of Indianapolis who specializes in building super markets, will erect the building and lease it to the Kroger Co. It should be in operation before the end of the current year.

It was said today that Harry Black has the contract for the Sun Oil Co. gas station, which will be among the most modern in the state. It is hoped to get it underway within a few weeks.

The above deals were consummated by O. U. Carpenter of the Progressive Real Estate agency.

Democrats Set Convention Date

INDIANAPOLIS, July 16—The next Democratic state convention will be Tuesday, June 26, 1956.

The Democratic State Committee set the date Thursday and also approved the appointment of W. Herschel Skinner of Carthage as its secretary.

The Republicans haven't yet set the date for their 1956 convention but probably will choose the Friday after the Democratic meeting. Both parties held their nominating conventions in the State Fairgrounds Coliseum about the same time and share the expense of decorations and other arrangements.

Skinner was appointed by Charles E. Skillen, state chairman, to succeed Thomas R. Hutson of Brazil, who resigned several weeks ago.

Skinner served as state personnel director during the second administration of Gov. Henry F. Schriener and formerly was purchasing agent for the State Highway Department.

IN THE GOOD OLD DAYS

PIONEER DIES—At the time of the death of Captain James E. M. O'Hair on July 24, 1899 at the ripe old age of 95, the interesting life of this Putnam County pioneer was reviewed in the Greencastle Banner. This obituary is being reproduced because it is not only of interest to the O'Hair, Hillis and Lockridge descendants, of this pioneer, but the early days of Putnam County is vividly portrayed and would reflect similar conditions undergone by other Putnam County pioneers.

"Michael O'Hair, the father of James E. M. O'Hair, was a native of Ireland. There he lived until he was grown to manhood. Then, being a person of positive opinions and a Protestant, he naturally sought the American colonies, where he could exercise his religious and political views as best suited him. He landed in this country in 1775, about one year before the Declaration of Independence. He settled in Virginia where he lived when England declared war against the colonies. He at once laid down the plow for the sword, and enlisted in the army, and was chosen by General Washington as one of his aide-de-camps, but was afterwards placed under General Green, and was with him in all his battles in the Carolinas and in Virginia. He was a soldier of the revolution for seven years, remaining faithful to the cause until peace had been declared and the United States had become free and independent. After his discharge from the army he lived for a short time in Virginia, and from there went to Jessamine County, Kentucky, where he soon after was married to a Miss Campbell. Four children were born to them—three daughters and one son. The death of his first wife occurred in a short time after the birth of the last child. His second marriage was to Elizabeth Tribbett, about 1794, by whom he had ten children—five sons and five daughters. His descendants now number more than 1,000 persons—J. E. M. O'Hair was the fifth child by the second marriage of Michael O'Hair, and was born July 5th, 1804. In 1812, when he was eight years of age, his father died. His mother survived him a number of years, her death occurring Oct. 1st, 1839, at the home of her son, six miles north of Greencastle. She was buried at Brick Chapel Cemetery."

EARLY YOUTH—"At the age of fifteen, J. E. M. O'Hair went to live with James Montgomery near Mt. Sterling, Ky., with whom he lived and worked for his board and clothing for five years. During this time he went to school about three months out of each winter, for four winters, obtaining thus all the school education he ever received. The school house was built of hewed logs with a large fireplace in one end, having split saplings with wooden legs for benches and greased paper for window panes. MARRIAGE—"At the age of twenty years on March 5th, 1825, the subject of this sketch was married to Margaret Montgomery. In a few days thereafter, having loaded on a pack-saddle all their household goods, consisting of two beds, three plates, two teapots, two knives, two forks, a gourd, a stewkettle and a skillet, the wife riding another horse and carrying with her all of her wearing apparel and leading the pack horse, and the husband following on foot, driving a cow and a colt which his father-

Lamb And Wool Vote In August

The Putnam County ASC Committee advises that the U. S. Department of Agriculture has announced that, through ballots to be cast not later than August 19, producers will vote in a referendum to decide whether or not an agreement providing for advertising, promotional, and related market development activities on wool and lambs under Section 708 of the National Wool Act of 1954 will be put into effect.

The agreement between the recently-organized American Sheep Producers Council and the Secretary of Agriculture provides for deductions from wool incentive and lamb and yearling sheep payments made to producers under the National Wool Act of 1954. These deductions will provide a means of financing the market development program. Before the agreement can be put into effect, producers owning at least two-thirds of the sheep and lambs represented by votes in the referendum must vote their approval.

PLANE CRASHES IN MEXICO, 22 PERSONS DEAD

BODIES OF TWO AMERICANS FOUND AMONG VICTIMS

OAXACA, Mexico, July 16.—(UP)—The bodies of 22 persons, including two American tourists, were found yesterday in the burned wreckage of a Mexican airliner that crashed in the mountainous wilds of Oaxaca state.

There were no survivors. The Americans were identified by Lineas Aereas Unidas officials as Mr. and Mrs. Irwin Weinbaum of New York City.

The plane, a twin-engine DC-3 en route from the Pacific coast resort of Acapulco to Oaxaca, apparently caught fire in the air. Villagers at Mixtepec, 27 miles north of here said they saw flames streaming from one engine as the airliner flew overhead. A few minutes later it crashed in the mountains nearby.

The crash was not reported until this morning when a tense message from Mixtepec said the bodies would be shipped to Oaxaca.

In addition to the two Americans, the plane carried a newly elected Mexican federal deputy, Angel Arceola Martinez of Acapulco, and an infant. The Weinbaums had been vacationing at Acapulco.

NEED STORAGE SPACE

INDIANAPOLIS, July 16.—With another bumper corn crop bidding for on-farm storage, Commodity Credit Corp. needs cribs for 5,600,000 more bushels of Indiana's 1954 crop.

CCC has about 17,500,000 bushels of last year's crop under seal for price support loans and must start moving it off the farms July 31. The government has 60 days to put the corn in its own storage facilities.

Robert Fulmer, who directs CCC operations for the Indiana Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee, said cribs are needed most in northwestern Indiana, where there were many record corn yields last year.

WANTS RIDGWAY CALLED FOR COMMITTEE HEARING

WASHINGTON, July 16.—(UP)—Sen. Henry M. Jackson D., Wash. proposed today that Gen. Matthew B. Ridgway be called before the Senate Armed Services Committee his objections to the administration's military strategy.

Jackson suggested that Congress undertake "a review of our entire defense posture" in view of Ridgway's position and the administration's refusal to accept a congressional decision to expand the Marine Corps.

It was disclosed Friday that Ridgway, a few days before he retired June 30 as Army chief of staff, declared that military forces are "inadequate in strength and improperly proportioned." He outlined his position in a letter to Defense Secretary Charles E. Wilson.

IKE IS HOPEFUL OF CONFERENCE HE TELLS U. S.

SAYS HONEST EFFORT WILL BE MADE TO EASE THE WORLD TENSIONS

WASHINGTON, July 16.—(UP)—President Eisenhower flew toward Europe today for a Big Four conference which he said could be "the greatest step toward peace . . . in all the history of mankind."

The President's super-Constellation, the Columbine III, was scheduled to arrive at Keflavik, Iceland, early today on the first leg of his transatlantic flight to Geneva, Switzerland.

The President was invited to dine with Iceland's president, Asgeir Asgeirsson, during a two-hour refueling stopover and then resume his flight. His estimated arrival time at Geneva was 3 p. m., EDT.

Minutes before his departure from Washington Friday night at 9:18 p. m., EDT, the President told the nation in a radio and television broadcast of his hopes for the Geneva meeting. He said he was going to "extend the hand of friendship" to Russia provided the Soviet Union "honestly" joins in a search for a "new road" to world peace.

He promised that he and Secretary of State John Foster Dulles "shall do our best with others there to start the world on the beginning of a new road, a road that may be long and difficult, but which, if faithfully followed, will lead us all into a better and fuller life."

Mr. Eisenhower said he hoped to find at the Geneva meeting "one ingredient that has been missing" from previous such conferences—"an honest intent to conciliate, to understand to be tolerant, to try to see the other fellow's viewpoint as well as we see our own."

He said if such conditions exist, the Geneva meeting can be the "greatest step toward peace, toward future prosperity and tranquility that has ever been taken in all the history of mankind."

The President also responded warmly in his address to a pledge made by Soviet Premier Nikolai Bulganin at a Moscow press conference Friday to seek at Geneva a "common language" to end East-West tensions.

Looks Forward To Seeing President

MOSCOW, July 16.—(UP)—Marshal Georgi K. Zhukov, Soviet defense minister, said today he planned seeing his "old friend" President Eisenhower on a personal basis outside official talks at the Big Four Geneva conference.

Zhukov, who became friends with the President during World War II and since he has corresponded with him, said he thought a personal meeting would be natural "after not seeing an old friend for so many years."

LITTLE SUBJECT INSISTS ON MEETING THE KING

WANTING A GOOD look at King Gustav on the king's visit to Gaevle, Sweden, a young lad named Goran shows how it's done. After wedging through legs of spectators in front of him, he strides (left) boldly up to the monarch and takes a place (right) beside him. His royal highness remains unperturbed at this highly irregular procedure. (International)

GOOD OLD DAYS
In-law had given him, the young couple started for their new home in the wild mountains of Estal County, Kentucky, on the Kentucky river, seventy five miles away. They took two days for the journey. Arrived at his destination, the young farmer traded one horse for a claim of about twenty-five acres. This trade left him one mare, a colt, one cow, a young wife and not a dollar in his pocket. He at once determined to better his condition and to own a large farm. The first year he cleared five acres of ground. He raised five crops on this place. All the iron he had for tending these crops was the point of his shovel plow and the bit in his horses mouth. After he had raised one crop, his brother-in-law, Jesse Ogden sold him eleven sows and pigs on credit for thirty dollars. He drove them home, eighteen miles, and turned them out on mast in the mountains, feeding them occasionally to keep them from running wild. That thirty dollars of debt worried him day and night and he was determined to repay it. In order to do this he hunted coons on winter nights, for their hides, which he sold for ten dollars. His wife spun yarn, wove cloth, and made him an overcoat, which he concluded to do without, in order that he might sell it for twenty dollars to pay his debt. He now had the thirty dollars he owed Mr. Ogden and walked eighteen miles to pay it. He felt chagrined when on reaching Mr. Ogden's home, the latter refused to take the money; saying, 'Jim, I don't need that money and you do. You take it to buy some calves to take home with you.' He did so, buying ten head, driving them home and turning them into the canebrakes." (Continued next week.)

HOUSE GROUP FAVORS HUGE ROAD PROGRAM
WASHINGTON, July 16 — The House Public Works Committee yesterday approved a giant $48,500,000,000 12-year road-building program that rejects President Eisenhower's bond program in favor of new gasoline and tire taxes to pay part of the cost.
The Democratic-sponsored substitute for Mr. Eisenhower's 10-year highway program was adopted by a 22-6 vote after the committee agreed to levy $12,021,000,000 in new taxes over a 15-year period.
The tax feature, tentatively approved Thursday, provides for an increase in Federal gasoline taxes from two to three cents a gallon, to raise $8,638,000,000 toward the cost of the program.
The remainder of the special tax fund would come from higher levies on trucks, busses, trailers, Diesel fuel, heavy duty tires, heavy duty tubes and a new tax on camelback used in tire retreads.
Treasury Secretary George M. Humphrey, in his testimony on the plan, said he was "perfectly willing" to accept the tax method off financing. But he said he preferred Mr. Eisenhower's bond program even though it might be more inflationary.
The bill includes $26,666,000,000 for 40,000 miles of interstate superhighways, planned to meet national defense needs. The Federal share of the cost would be 90 per cent with the states putting up the other 10 per cent.
Overall, the bill provides for $35,000,000,000 in Federal Funds and $13,000,000,000 in money to be raised by the states.
The bill also includes $20,700,000,000 for primary, secondary and urban roads, with Federal and state governments splitting the cost 50-50.
Another $1,092,000,000 would be spent by the Federal government on roads on Federal land.
The bill provides for a far larger program than a Senate-approved measure calling for a program. President Eisenhower has asked for a $39,000,000,000 10-year program of new Federal-state road building. He figures state and local governments would build enough other roads to bring the overall total to $101,000,000,000.

Airliner Makes Crash Landing
YAKIMA, Wash. July 16 — (UP)—A Northwest Airlines plane carrying CBS news commentator Edward Murrow and 12 others passengers crash landed in a pasture near Yakima Friday night, tearing off part of the wing, but all aboard escaped injury.
"It was a good landing because everybody walked away from it," said Murrow. His wife and 9-year old son, Casey, also were aboard the craft.
Pilot Jack Taylor of Seattle said he had to crash land the two-engine DC3 after a sudden wind shift caused it to dip badly as she approached the Seattle Airport for a landing. He made the landing about a half-mile from the airport.
The plane stopped only 30 feet from a clump of trees.

PLAYS ABEL
He had anticipated the finesse of dummy's nine, and since he held the ten himself he knew that finesse would work. He hoped to induce Mr. Abel to think he was splitting his honors—playing the queen from a holding of king-queen.
That is exactly what Mr. Abel did think. He won with the ace of hearts in dummy, returned to his hand with the ace of diamonds and led the five of hearts. Mr. Dale played the four and the jack was put up in dummy.
Mr. Masters won with the king and led back a spade. Mr. Dale's ten of spades was permitted to win and another spade lead knocked out the ace, dummy's last entry.
DEFEATS CONTRACT
Eventually Mr. Dale won another heart trick with his ten, plus a spade and a club to defeat the contract.
Mr. Abel had won just a single trick in the heart suit instead of the three tricks he would have won if Mr. Dale had played the four spot on the first heart lead.

HOUSE GROUP FAVORS HUGE ROAD PROGRAM
WASHINGTON, July 16 — The House Public Works Committee yesterday approved a giant $48,500,000,000 12-year road-building program that rejects President Eisenhower's bond program in favor of new gasoline and tire taxes to pay part of the cost.
The Democratic-sponsored substitute for Mr. Eisenhower's 10-year highway program was adopted by a 22-6 vote after the committee agreed to levy $12,021,000,000 in new taxes over a 15-year period.
The tax feature, tentatively approved Thursday, provides for an increase in Federal gasoline taxes from two to three cents a gallon, to raise $8,638,000,000 toward the cost of the program.
The remainder of the special tax fund would come from higher levies on trucks, busses, trailers, Diesel fuel, heavy duty tires, heavy duty tubes and a new tax on camelback used in tire retreads.
Treasury Secretary George M. Humphrey, in his testimony on the plan, said he was "perfectly willing" to accept the tax method off financing. But he said he preferred Mr. Eisenhower's bond program even though it might be more inflationary.
The bill includes $26,666,000,000 for 40,000 miles of interstate superhighways, planned to meet national defense needs. The Federal share of the cost would be 90 per cent with the states putting up the other 10 per cent.
Overall, the bill provides for $35,000,000,000 in Federal Funds and $13,000,000,000 in money to be raised by the states.
The bill also includes $20,700,000,000 for primary, secondary and urban roads, with Federal and state governments splitting the cost 50-50.
Another $1,092,000,000 would be spent by the Federal government on roads on Federal land.
The bill provides for a far larger program than a Senate-approved measure calling for a program. President Eisenhower has asked for a $39,000,000,000 10-year program of new Federal-state road building. He figures state and local governments would build enough other roads to bring the overall total to $101,000,000,000.

THE ADVANCE OF MEDICINE against the enemy, disease, sweeps forward on every front. Techniques of anesthesia have improved to make possible surgical procedures denied to the practitioner of the twenties. Highly refined and specialized mechanical aids, including the x-ray, fluoroscope, and electrocardiograph, have sharpened diagnostic skills. Testing of the blood and urine reveals more significant facts to the physician than ever before.
In support of the physician, the pharmaceutical chemist continues to forge new chemical and biological weapons to fight disease. Insulin for the management of diabetes mellitus, liver extract for pernicious anemia, sulfa drugs, and penicillin are examples. Your physician and your pharmacist are alert to apply the improved procedures as they become available.

The World Council of Churches, representing most of world Protestantism and the Orthodox churches of Europe, has sent to Patriarch Alexi, in Moscow, the head of the Russian Orthodox Church, an appeal "to the governments and peoples" behind the iron curtain to help relieve present world tensions. The document urges "the statesmen and the leaders of public opinion and the press to refrain from words and actions which are designed to inflame enmity and hatred," and calls upon church leaders "in those countries between which tension exists to visit one another, so that they may gain a better understanding of one another, and of the countries in which they live, and thus strengthen the bonds of fellowship, and promote the reconciliation of the nations." It also urges the churches "to bid their members recognize their political responsibilities, and also to ask Christian technicians and administrators to find a vocation in the service of U. N. agencies engaged in meeting the needs of countries, thus bringing a Christian temper of love and understanding to bear upon the immensely difficult task of mutual assistance in the encounter of different cultures, (and) to unit in a common ministry of reconciliation in proclaiming Christ as the Hope of the World."

IN CASE OF EMERGENCY

Have enough gas for where you're going, Mister?
Well, little matter. You can always get more at some service station.

The same goes if unexpected guests drop in at home. You can buy bread, meat, or eggs at a nearby store... or you can borrow from a neighbor.

But this is not possible when a serious emergency strikes.
You have to be prepared beforehand. You can't buy strength of spirit. Nor can you borrow it. It grows within you, little at a time.

So be prepared when disappointment, discouragement, trouble, or grief strike.

Through worship at Church fortify yourself with faith and courage. Get acquainted with God's love and wisdom.

Come what may, you'll be ready for any emergency.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship.
It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.
